The first year's dues are payable in advance and are continued until resignation is submitted to the Board of Directors. Your investment supports the activities of the Chamber and is tax deductible as a business expense.

Because our main form of communication with our members is email, we encourage you and your co-workers to sign up to receive information detailing Chamber programs and events. Attach business cards or use back or form if necessary. These emails will not be published or sold and you may opt out at any time.
